The New Policy. "What will be the policy of the new Governor?" is a question one hears asked at every corner. The way in which the question is put indicates a certain degree of unfamiliarity with the new form of administration, If the new Governor be a wise man, as we be ieve him to be, he will have no political policy. As the Chairman or head, so to speak, of a Cabinet responsible to the people, he will take his stand within the constitution, where, like the Queen, he can do no wrong. It will, therefore, be the policy of the new Government, and not the new Governor, with which the people will have to do. Trifling as the distinction may possibly appear to some, it is a most important difference under Responsible Governe ment. The Governor is not responsible to the people; and if the policy be hs the very spirit and essence of Responsible Government will be absent. The government policy must be that of the Cabinet Ministers who alone are responsible to the people, and who must go out of office whenever their policy fails to command public confidence and approval. Of course there is the question as to how the affairs of the Province will be administered during the interregnum that intervenes between the assumption of the reins of power by the Governor and the meeting of the new Legislature - prosumably a period of three months. Two courses would appear to be open, viz, to construct at once a Cabinet out of such material as would be most likely to command the confidence of the people, and let it bear the responsibility of the administration of affairs during the interregnum; or tide over that period whatever may remain of the old Executive. The former course would place the responsibility upon the Ministers. The latter would loave the responsibility with the Governor. Without being in a position a say which course is likely to be adopted, a belief in the sagacity of the new Governor would prepare us to expect that he would incline to the former; for, however little he might be disposed to do during the interim, many things will necessarily have to be done the responsibility for which might much more conveniently rest with Ministers directly accountable to the people. It is impossible to conceal the fact that Mr Trutch will labor under the disadvantage of having to contend with local and class prejudices from which a stranger would probably have enjoyed immunity; but we feel confident that he possesses that measure of good sense and ability which will enable him to overcome all these, and that he will do so by a careful avoidance of the slight. est infringement of the spirit of the new constitution, and by the creation of a Cabinet which will adopt a thoroughly liberal and truly people's policy. We confess, therefore, that we do not share in the fears one so frequently hears expressed about the public affairs being administered and the public patronage being dispensed in the spirit of departing dispensation. 'Silver Islet.' The fabulous mineral wealth of that portion of Canada bordering on Lake Superior is coming to be more clearly realized. That country has long been famous for the richeess of its copper veins, yielding as high as ninety per cent, copper. It promises to acquire still greater fame for its silver. 'Silver Islet' comprises part of mineral lands recently owned by the Montreal Mining Company. It is situated southoast of Thunder Cape, being almost overshadowed by that magnificent and rugged promontory. It is a more speck in the watery waste, invisible at any considerable distance, being only about one fifth part of an acre. But who shall venture to limit the intrinsic value of The existence of silver Silver Islet? on this islet was first discovered by the Montreal Company, but they appear to have little appreciated the mine of wealth washed by the waters of the great lake. It was not till these mineral lands fell into the hands of a new company,—Anglo-American in composition—that any earnest effort was made to bring to light their hidden wealth. Last year the new company was organized, and commenced active work. The first step was to dig into the bowels of 'Silver Islet, and they are now successfully developing a twelve foot vein which nssays as high as seventy-five per cent, of silver, a very large proportion of the ore yielding over $2000 to the ton. Thus in Silver Islet is said to be the richest silver mine yet discovered. Nor is it believed that these enormously rich deposits are coofined to this little islet; (but it is thought that on the adjace t mainland equally as rich veins will be found. Indeed the question appears to have already been placed beyond doub!, as a Mr Beck has opened and is working a silver mine about twelve miles east of Fort Williams, from which ore has been taken quite equalling in richness that of the Silver Islet. In the same neighborhood a splendid van of nickel has also been discovered and everywhere copper abounds.

The result of all this is that the attention of science and capital is being directed to what has until very recently been only thought of as the most worthless and uninviting part of Canada—neglected by Canadians themselves and speered at by their neighbors—and there and snoered at by their neighbors—and there is every reason to expect that it will very soon become one of the busiest and most productive as well as most attractive parts of the whole Deminion. In all this there is a lesson for the people of British Columbia. a lesson for the people of British Columbia. It is some years since the Mootreal Company discovered the presence of the precious metal on 'Silver Islot,' and small quantities were taken from it, but in their clumps attempts they failed, we are told, to appreciate its wonderful riches. How many of just such instances will be recorded in this Province?

County Court.

Before A F Pemberton, Esq.

THURSDAY, August 1.

Henry Vine vs Edward Vine-This was an action brought to recover a balance due for wages to the amount of $239.

Plaintiff alleged that in August 1869 he for wages to the amount of $239.

Plaintiff alleged that in August 1869 he made a verbal agreement with and went to work for the defendant, his brother, on his farm at Beechy Bay, and that he re mained with him until the end of April, 1871, for which he charged $15 per month. 1871, for which he charged $15 per month. The verbal agreement he proved by the testimony of his father and two of his sistere, the defendant in evidence denied any such agreement and said his brother, the plaintiff, went to his house merely as a visitor and that after six weeks time had clapsed he requested the plaintiff to leave the louse and find employment somewhe e else. This statement was one med by the testimony of Mrs Vine, defendant's wife. The Judge in summing up the case remarked that the saffair was one of a very unpleasant character and should not have been brought into Court. It partock of the nature of a family querrel and he hoped the matter might still be amicably settled. He left that it he was compelled to give judgment he must recognize the claim of the plaintiff to a certain amount of compensation for his labor. And in order to give an opportunity for an amicable settlement he would postpone judgment in order to give an opportunity for an amis-able settlement he would postpone judgment for one week.

Mr Bishop appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr Drake for the defendant.

There were three other cases on the docket, which were postponed for one week.

STRANGE FREAK OF FORTUNE .- A Very STRANGE FREAK OF FORTUNE.—A very singular story has come to our notice, illustrative of the strange fieaks sometimes played by lotteries. A gentleman well known in military circles in this city made an investment to the extent of one ticket in the Sacramento lottery. He purchased at the time the first tickets were offered for sale. He had purchased dezens of lottery tickets before and hold twenty in the Mercantile Library scheme, but never heretofore has bed the fortune (or misfortune) to draw a prize. He had become so completely disgusted with his ill lock that he had determined never to buy another ticket. But when the Sacramento Lottery tickets were offered he, under a whim of the moment, resolved to purchase one only cud to seal it in an envelope without locking at the number until the drawing should have taken place, and he could have a complete list before him. He carried out his resolution. Lest evening with a full list of the orizes at hand he opened his envelope. He had been so many times unfortunate that he really had no expectation of drawing a prize, but still he had a faint hope that his luck would change. On tearing open the envelope with an affected nonchalance judge of his astonishment on finding he had draw—nothing. Moral: Il you want to be sure of a lucky number don't look at it until it draws something.—S F Bulletin.

Miss Cora Dellamend—one of the best singular story has come to our notice, illus-

MISS CORA DELAMOND -one of the best magicians, and, we believe, the only lady in the profession—has been tendered a complimentary benefit at the Theatre, for Thursday evening, by a large number of gentlemen who have witnessed the adverse circumstances under which the has performed here and fair and square' mode in which the prizes have been given out each evening. Not to be outdone in generosity. Miss i Lamond will present as the first prize a silver tea set of six pieces, a live sucking pig, and 90 smaller prizes of value. The prize tea set may be seen in the window of Mr Redfarn, Government street. An effort will be made to fill the house from pit to dome, The excellent nature of the performance and the high character of the beneficiary—to say nothing of the prizes—will, we feel certain, secure a large attendance. The prices of admission are fixed at 50 and 25 magicians, and, we believe, the only lady in prices of admission are fixed at 50 and 25 cents!

CONVALESCENT .- Amongst the passengers who went up to Nanaimo by the Douglas yesterday was Mr E Gough who, it will be remembered, met with a very serious accident about four months since over at the Scattle coal mine. Mr Gouth has been an inmate of the Royal Hospital since that time, during which his injured leg had to be amputated; and in leaving that glissitution he is desirous of expression his sense of obligation to the medical attendants, and expecially to Dr Jackson, in charge, as well as to Mrs Jackson, for their unremitting attentions and great kindness during his protracted confinement. Mr Gough returns to the boson of his family at Nanaimo most favorably impressed with the excellent management of the Royal Hospital and the careful and skilful medical treatment enjoyed by its immates. yesterusy was Mr E Gough who, it will be ed by its inmates.

Hops FROM THE EAST .- The Sacramento Union of the 21st ult says : 'It would naturally be expected that a sufficient quantity of hops was raised in California to do away of hops was raised in California to do away with the necessity of importing them, but such does not seem to be the case as a carload arrived from the East by last night's freight train.' The trouble lies in the quality of the California hops. As Vancouver Island will have a large surplus of excellent quality this year, why cannot a shipment be made to California?

THE CANADIAN SHOOTISTS, -An English newspaper correspondent, writing from Altcar Range, near Liverpool, says of the Canadian riflemen who were carrying everything before them at that point:—When the Canadian team went first upon the range two of the members—'Wastie and Mason—were in the habit of 'canting' their rifles to the round, that is, inclining their rifles from the plump against the round, to allow for the 'duft.' It was really amusing when strangers were present to hear the remarks about not holding the rifle 'perpendicular.' There were a couple of musketry instructors on the ground the other day watching the progress of the team. One says to the other softle voce of course, 'Look hat that man's rifle, hits not plumb. E'll never it the target hin the world,' when bang went the rifle, and the buili's eye disc at the target showed that the 'shootist's' head was level and he had carried it plump.' Range, near Liverpool, says of the Canadian he had carried it plump.'

WHY DOS'NT HE COMB .- According to our latest Canadian exchanges Mr Sandford Fleming still lingered in the maritime Provinces, having started out from Cumberland on the 14th July, in company with the Hon Tupper to go over the Intercolonial Railway as far as River du Loup. Why don't be hasten to the shores of the Pacific where the great engineering problem awaits solution at his hands?

FOR NANAIMO AND COMOX.—The Bleamer Sir James Douglas left for Nanaimo yesterday morning at 7 o'clock with the following passengers. Revs Pollard and Derrick, Mr Wolf Capt Dawes, Major Dounie, A Davidson, S Bednall, Mr Johnson, Mr Perkins and 13 orphan children from St Anns' convent. A yoke of oxen for Mr McGuffie, Gabriola Island, were also sent forward.

LILLOORT DISTRICT .- Mr John Saul, prosperous farmer and an excellent men, will be a candidate in Lilloost District for the local Legislature. Mr Saul is a shrewd, industrious man, and possesses qualities which emicently fit him for a legislator. Mr Humphreys, the late member for Lillacet, will also stand; but should a respectable man be brought out against him he would be easily defeated. be easily defeated.

PROVINCIAL RIFLE MESTING. -The Nova Scotia Provinc al Rifle Meeting closed at Bedford on the 14th of July. The shooting is said to have been very good. The prizes were presented in Halifax by Lieutenant Governor

THE SEATING RINK grows in popularity and not a few young gentlemen and ladies have become fice skaters. This alternoon and evening there will be a large attendance of ladies. To BE MAJOR GENERAL -It was rumored in

New York, July 30.—The Staten Island ferryboat Westfield exploded her boiler to-day when in Whitehelt slip and crowded with passengers. The concussion was terrific shattering the forward part of the boat and killing and sculding a great number of persons. The hurricane deck was blown oversboard, and fell over a large number of persons the part of the water who were drown. sons struggling in the water who were drowned. The front of the boiler was blown entirely out, lodging in the how 30 feet distant Upper cabin was split into a thousand pieces Upper cabin was split into a thousand pieces As an eyewitness expressed it, the forward part of the boat lifted 50 feet in air, the smoke stack fell and; then everything was buried is the hold; passengers, chairs, stools, horses, benches and life preservers dropped into the hold fronting the huge boiler, which poured out volumes of steam. Many persons were blown overboard. Fathers and mothers had their children blown from their arms. The water for an instant was alive with meo, women and children struggling for life. Those on the after part of the boat, which escaped the force of the explosion, would have been safe, but being panic stricken they leaped overboard regardless of consequences. Capt Tilman of the new steamer Othello, seeing the explosion, was promptly on hand. The fire alarm was sounded, the harbor police boat came to the rescue and geotlemen who were in row boats. escue and gentlemen who were in row boats at the Battery helped to save the victims. As the debris in the fore part of the held was cleared away the cries of the half-boiled cleared away the cries of the half-boiled victims were heartrending. Stimulants were given them as they struggled for breath and oil was poured upon their burns. As fast as the wounded were recovered they were borne to another ferryboat alongside, where they were cared for by physicians.

NEW YORK, July 31—Most reliable accounts of the disaster give the total killed at 50 and the wounded at 120. Against loop Freelind, the captain, and Harry Rob-

John Freelind, the captain, and Harry Rob-usson, the engineer, the indignation is exces-sive, though the friends of the latter say he is not to blame as the boiler was inspected by U S boiler inspector W Juris and pro-nounced safe. By 4 octock 75 persons had been received into the Centre street Hospibeen received into the centre street Hospital, of whom 5 died within an hoor. Twelve dead bodies have been removed from the boat and 4 more were found in the water. Five of the wounded have died, making 26 persons killed nearly outright. Many of those in the water clung to the piles until rescued, but others sank before aid could reach them.

New York, July 31—Coroner Kernan will hold an investigation into the explosion of the steamer Westfield, tomorrow. The jury will be composed of business men and practical mechanics, who will be able to render an inetligent verdict according to the evidence and place the blame for the accident where it place the blame for the accident where it properly belongs. If one party reports true government inspector. Chould will be indicted by the grand jury. The engineer apprehended an explosion, for he says that he looked at the patch on the cylinder on Thursday, and a piece of cylinder which was blown out shows that the iron had been beaten out around the rivets until it was as this as four sheets of paper. Grappling for dead bodies was kept up all night and is still going on. Shortly after midnight warden Brennan, reported over forty dead bodies in Bellevieu hospital. About sixty are most horribly sealeded and bruised, sixty are most horribly scalded and bruised, many of whom will doubtless die from their injuries. Most of the passengers had con-gregated almost directly over the boiler, in the following on the Mussacre at Tientsin;

The North China Herald of June 2 gives

It will be seen that the total sum eventually awarded by the Chinese Government is 2500 against Tls. 3400 asked by Mr Wade, and Tls. 9925 originally claimed by the Missionaries.

The same journal in another issue thus speaks of the silk trade. The weather for the past month has been most favorable for the progress of the coming silk crop and we shall, in all probability, see a larger yield than for many years past. The Chinges es-timates of the amount of ell available for export vary from 45,000 to 55,000 bales; and it appears very probable the export will reach nearer the latter than the former quanity.

JAPAN.

From the Japan Gazette we extract the following items : Troops continue to pour into Yeddo from many provinces—contributions of the several Princes to the national army to be estab-lished at the capital, but the Government will have to deal very cautiously in this matter for the smallest partiality shown to any one clan raises the jedolosy of the rest.
